Topic: Abraham's Journey to Faith

Scripture: Genesis 22:1-14

Prayer: Rev. Lane Loman

Where failure did abound, grace did much more abound.

How did this man Abraham reach this place of faith?

Abraham's Faith Failures

Abraham's failures reflect his lack of trust in God to protect him.

Despite his failures, God never rejected or left Abraham.

Abraham operated in fear, not in faith.

Even in the failures of faith, Abraham was learning that God cared for him.

Abraham's Faith Lessons Learned

Abraham learned how to hear the voice of God.

In the midst of his failures, Abraham began to learn how to listen to God.

He learned how to respond to God's voice.

We learn to hear the voice of God by being obedient to God.

Sometimes we learn to hear God's voice through our failures.

Abraham learned generosity through his obedience to God.

Abraham's Faith Test

God told Abraham to offer his only son Isaac.

Abraham was here because of his failures and lessons learned.

Abraham's faith is expressed in Genesis 22:5 "we will worship and then we will come back to you."

God will provide Himself a sacrifice.

Abraham passed the test of great faith when he placed his son on the altar and raised the knife to sacrifice him.

Through all this Abraham had learned how to trust in God.

Scripture: Romans 12:9-21

Topic: Living In Harmony Within the Body of Christ

Prayer: Rev. Lane Loman

What is God's standard for relationships within the body of Christ?

"Live in harmony one with another." Romans 12:16a

Scriptural Formula for living in harmony one with another:

1. Love one another

This love says, "I care. I care about you."

This love is based on a choice and action of the mind.

2. Accept one another,

Admit, to allow, to belong. Your saying "you belong".

Are we willing to get a little bit messy to reach the lost?

If we're going to build the kingdom of God, we must be willing to admit (not to church membership) those who are needy.

3. We need one another

"Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves." Romans 12:10

We believe God is a Sovereign God and has a divine purpose for our lives and the church to which we belong.

4. We must be willing to confess to one another

"Honor one another above yourselves."

"Confess your sins one to another." Be willing to confess to another if you've done wrong to them.

Don't avoid one another because of wrongs. Rather, seek to reconcile to each other.

5. Forgive one another.

Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

When we come to Christ with a broken and contrite heart, He will forgive us—no matter how many times we come to Him.

Are we willing to forgive one another in the same way?

How do we build a church? Live in harmony, one with another.

Scripture: 2 Samuel 9:1-13

Topic: Demonstration of Grace

Prayer: Rev. Lane Loman

There is a fine line between grace that is measured and grace that is treasured.

We must be careful that we do not take grace for granted.

God's Grace has many facets: Saving Grace, Purifying Grace, Sustaining Grace and Dying Grace

David demonstrates grace that mirrors God's grace.

David asked, is there anyone in the house of Saul to whom I can show God's kindness (grace).

"Come unto me all who is weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest." Jesus

David showed compassion.

Our world is filled with people who are crippled by the effects of sin.

God doesn't care how crippled we are...

David said to Mephibosheth, "Don't be afraid, for I will surely show you grace..."

God invites us to eat at His table as "one of His sons" just as David did for Mephibosheth.

"I'm thankful for the extended arm of God's grace." Rev. Lane Loman

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Greetings to the one hundred and seventy seventh session of the Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church.

The stationing committee was able to assign a minister to every church but two this past conference year. Coxburg church was not assigned a pastor. Mr. Tracy Eldridge has filled the pulpit for some time, pray for Coxburg Church, they haven't sent a delegate to conference for several years. Sharp Memorial was also without an assigned pastor a majority of this conference year the pulpit was filled by Mr. Taurus Hutchinson and with the help from other laymen of the church they conducted the services faithfully.

I have preached homecoming services and visited in revival services during this past year. I enjoy visiting with our churches and getting to know the congregation. We are blessed to have a vast mixture of people types from many different backgrounds in our denomination. They include farmers, military, business professionals and what I have found is that they love the Lord and aren't afraid to show it. I thank God for holiness people. They are the most loving people that I have ever known.

Last year's conference we were in the midst of a remodel downstairs. That project has been completed. In my opinion it looks great, I want to personally thank all that were involved in the project from the Laymen's fellowship and the Board of Directors and Conference Trustees. This adds a finished look to the entrance, rotunda and restrooms.

Many trips and phone calls this year dealing with the sale of the Magee Church property. We are still working with the realtor to complete this sale. May God bless the prospective owners in their future Kingdom work.

I also would like to mention our caretaker\security guard Mr. Ben Ford. Ben is so much more than that to our property here. If there is any type of severe weather he make sure everything that can be done is taken care of ahead of time. If there is any damage, he fixes it before I can even get here. If limbs fall, he gets rid of them. He makes sure the water is turned on and off when groups come and go and locks up when they are gone. He does all this and won't except any extra money, God has blessed us with Ben Ford.

I appreciate each of the pastors, their wives and congregations in the Mississippi Methodist Protestant Conference. I pray for each of you and hope you know you can call on me anytime with your needs and concerns.

In His service

Rev. Marc Williams, President

Mississippi Annual Conference President

CONFERENCE PROPERTY

The Campgrounds, located near Collins, Mississippi, was purchased in 1952. There are six (6) buildings on this property: a tabernacle with dining room and kitchen area, a girl's dorm, a boy's dorm, a metal storage building, a worker's cottage and a pavilion.

In 1986, Mrs. Sonja Sharp Metrolis was asked to appraise the real property. This appraised value at that date (as recorded in the minutes of 1985-86) was $520,000.00. The appraisal did not include any personal property or furnishings in any of the buildings. Improvements made since the appraisal include renovation of the girl's dorm, construction of a cafeteria, a metal storage building, metal roofs on the girls' dorm, the boys' dorm and the tabernacle, the kitchen renovated, a workers' cottage and the Carmichael-Sellers Pavilion. During the past year, additional repairs and renovations have been made to the facilities. All of these repairs and additions add to the value of the property. At this time a camper site is being developed.

MAGEE Property: The Antioch Church property is in the hands of the Conference. We have been paying the utilities and cutting the grass for the past six years. During 2012, the title to the property and the bank balance was transferred to the Conference. We have invested $17,000.00 in the property.

OTHER PROPERTIES: None.

5. That all pastors teach evangelism and personal witnessing at least annually.
6. That all pastors and churches get involved with their respective communities and canvas their areas for evangelistic opportunities.
7. That churches use Sunday school and other small groups to promote outreach and use it as a means to bring new people into their churches to promote growth.
8. That the conference support, both physically and financially, new mission churches.
9. Whereas the Scouts BSA (formerly Boy Scouts) and Girl Scouts of America have embraced beliefs that are unscriptural and not in accordance with the doctrine of the Methodist Protestant Church, that our churches and its members withdraw from such organizations and instead join similar organizations that promote godliness and holiness.
10. Whereas some retailers and other consumer related businesses have forsaken the teachings of scripture and have chosen to put our families in physical and spiritual danger, that our members not lead our children away from the Lord by supporting such entities with our patronage.
11. That our pastors and church leaders pursue Christian educational opportunities made available through the Methodist Protestant Church such as the Holiness Summit offered by the Board of Christian Education and other religious educational offerings by Wesleyan Arminian organizations such as the pastor's retreat provided by Kentucky Mountain Bible College.

Deaconess Reports

To The 2019 Conference

This has been on ongoing year of learning for me as Editor of the MPF. I look at this endeavor as a ministry, and I thank the Lord for His help especially. Several MP's have assisted me in this work as well.

I serve in various capacities on the local level, including Church Leader, Adult Sunday School Teacher, Church Librarian, and I also lead Children's Church on a rotating basis. I have continued to serve on the General Board of Christian Education as an active part of that Board. The WMS is another avenue of service locally, as well as on state and general levels. I am involved on Wednesday Night "Manna" Prayer and Contact Ministry at the Monticello Methodist Protestant Church. There are occasions in the Pastor's absence that I have led Sunday services.

I appreciate being able to serve the Lord in and through the Methodist Protestant Church. All the glory and praise be to the One and Only True and Living God!

BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF BIBLE CAMPGROUND AND HEADQUARTERS and CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

Special thanks to the Southwest Zone of the Woman's Missionary Society for raising the money to help us begin replacing the lights in the Tabernacle. The first project is complete. This was to install lights around the perimeter and redo the lights on the platform. The plan is to continue by replacing the remaining light fixtures with recessed lighting. Donations of time and money are welcome and needed.

We had a couple of workdays this year to do general cleaning, maintenance and improvements. We will continue these workdays and will get those scheduled days out to everyone through the Methodist Protestant Faith.

Other general maintenance has been done such as repairing tile downstairs, repairing toilets and lighting in the various buildings. Thanks also to Rev. James Roy Killingsworth for stripping and waxing the floors in the dining areas. They look great.

We are also continuing to evaluate needs for the current girl's dorm as well as look at options for a new facility. This is a great need. We desire God's will and direction in this project.

The Trustees have been working with Chris Curlee, the Realtor for the Magee property, to complete the sale of the property in Magee. We are waiting for the Bank to let us know when the signing can take place. We hope this will happen within the next couple of weeks. UPDATE: Chris Curlee reported that one of the investors has pulled out. The bank estimates another thirty days. The property continues to be listed for sale.
